W. P. WALTON.

The legislature of Virginia is kicking against the proposed reorganization of the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad company, and as the State has 17,000 shares in the concern it would seem that she has a right to do so. When the question was before the body last week Senator McDonald charged fraud and said that if the management of the road robbed the State the penitentiary would soon hold them. Senator Wickham, who is both vice-president and receiver of the road, demanded to know if the remarks were intended as personal to him. To which McDonald replied that they did if the Senator was a party to the fraud. White with rage Wickham responded: "If the Senator dares to insinuate that any concern in which I am engaged is guilty of fraud I will place him, by death, where I feel alone can touch him." Great excitement reigned for a time, but order was finally restored and a resolution passed to appoint a legislative committee to examine into the matter. Wickham was a general in the Confederate army and is a noted fighter. In a hand to hand sabre fight with a yankee soldier during the war he whipped his man, but not until he was himself fearfully wounded.

JOE BLACKBURN, who has just returned from California, doesn't take much stock in that so-called Eden of America. He says that the people practice a systematized method of robbery upon every one who enters the State. The hotel rates are twice as high as at the Fifth Avenue, New York, and by actual calculation his stay at one cost him $8 an hour. He was anxious to get away on any conditions and felt himself lucky that his suit of clothes and shirt were left him. The junior Kentucky Senator is not always responsible for what his mouth says when he lets it go, but from all we can hear he does not exaggerate much this time.

MAXWELL, the St. Louis trunk murderer, gets another lease on life, by petitioning for a new hearing to the Supreme Court. He has written a long and well composed statement of his side of the case, which in substance is that being somewhat of a doctor, Preller permitted him to give him chloroform previous to an operation for stricture; that he gave him too much and when he found out that his friend was dead he was so crazy with excitement that he packed the body in a trunk, fearing that his statement would not be taken as true, and fled. It is all very plausible, but somehow he can't make anybody believe it.

The National Committee in session at Washington decided to hold the democratic convention to nominate a candidate for president at Chicago on the 31 of July. The Californians made a mighty effort to have it held at San Francisco and Senator Hearst, proprietor of the Examiner, issued a Washington edition to his paper setting forth in gorgeous coloring the glories of the Pacific coast, but Joe Blackburn's experience there changed the current of events, if they were setting that way.

The Louisville Times nominates Roscoe Conkling for President and Billy O. Bradley for vice-president, on a platform of "Let her go Gallego." We second the nomination and move its unanimous adoption. We don't know much about Roscoe, but our Billy can play hush breaking up the Solid South, and "That's what's the matter with Hannah."

There are 132 deaf and dumb pupils in the Asylum at Danville, 73 girls and 59 boys. Lincoln county has five, which is a greater number than any of the counties, save Madison 7 and Jefferson 13. The colored department has 30 pupils, and Lincoln has one of them. The institution cost the State $38,107.14 for the last fiscal year.

Prohibition conventions were held this week in Tennessee and Rhode Island. Both adopted strong resolutions against the damnable stuff and all who traffic in it and the latter nominated a ticket for State officers.

This weather puts a taste in one's mouth for that best of all dishes—jowl and turnip greens. Where are you good Dr. Woods that you have not prescribed it yet for the thousands of readers of the Capital?

The prohibitionists of the Louisville district are determined to be on time. They have already nominated Judge E. J. Balk, who recently moved to that city from Harrodsburg, for Congress.

The president and his beautiful wife are down in Florida luxuriating on roasting ears and strawberries. They only remain a day, however, and then fly back to the Capital.

Gov. PALMER, of Illinois, is shortly to be married and it is expected that the event will give him a big boom for the democratic nomination for governor.

SEVEN more petitions for divorce were granted in Louisville Monday, which city seems to be trying to out-Chicago Chicago in that line.

LEGISLATIVE ACTS.

—A bill to make 80 pounds of coal a legal bushel is before the House.

—The bill giving the Council of Stanford power to increase the rate of taxation has passed both houses.

—Lawyer Davison was one of the 71 who voted for the extension of the session beyond the constitutional limit.

—A bill to pay Commonwealth attorneys $2,000 a year, instead of the salary and fees now paid, has been presented by Mr. Reid.

—It having been discovered that the bill incorporating the Stanford street railway was never passed in the same shape in both Houses of the last general assembly, Lawyer Davison has reintroduced it.

—From Saturday at noon until noon Thursday—five days—the legislature will be in session about five hours, an average of one hour a day, at a cost of $1,000 per hour. [Times.]

—The House by a vote of 71 to 11 has extended the session to March 15th, which means indefinitely. The so-called solons will be there drawing the pay they do not earn when the May flowers bloom.

—The Legislature took holiday on the 23d. People are always very patriotic when they can be at some body else's expense. The State paid $1,000 for this little holiday which was perhaps cheaper for it than if the legislature had been in session.

COMPRESSED NEWS.

—The Fayette grand jury indicted the city of Lexington for filthiness.

—The loss of property at Mt. Vernon, Ill., by the cyclone is given at $900,000.

—The mayor of Mt. Vernon makes a touching appeal for aid for the cyclone sufferers.

—George H. Corless, the inventor of the engine bearing his name, died at Providence, R. I.

—Mrs. Sarah Reed was burned to death at her home near Indianapolis in a mysterious manner.

—The Pennsylvania railroad employs a lady at a good salary to "chaparrin" ladies traveling alone.

—Mrs. Alvin Overstreet was fatally burned at Nicholasville, by her clothing taking fire from a grate.

—A shingle mill boiler at West Melbourne, La., exploded, killing three men and wounding 13 others.

—Jerome Sparks, who did not get to be a legislator, has been nominated by the republicans of Jessamine for sheriff.

—Rev. J. C. Price, colored, president of the Livingston College, Salisbury, N. C., has been appointed minister to Liberia.

—Miss Holmes, Harper's confidential clerk and paramour, has been released from jail for complicity in the Fidelity frauds.

—The county levy in Marion has been fixed at 50 cents and the poll tax $2.50, pretty heavy rates for the privilege of living in such a county.

—Miss Jessie Bryant, daughter of a wealthy Fayette county farmer, took "Rough on Rats" by mistake for quinine and died in great agony.

—A recent law of Congress entirely prohibits aliens from holding lands in this country without declaring their intention of becoming citizens.

—W. C. Bernhardt, a Richmond, Ind., lawyer, committed suicide, leaving only a note in explanation, which said, "This man is just smart enough to be a fool."

—R. B. Hayes, of Ohio, enjoys the distinction of being the only republican in the country who has not been mentioned for the presidential nomination in 1888.

—The L. & N. system covers 2,023 miles and earns nearly $400,000 a week. The company has built 30 new passenger coaches, which will be put on the road in a few days.

—Charles Wingate and Annie Fox, an eloping uncle and niece from Monroe, Mich., were caught at Alliance, O., and jailed, where they succeeded in getting a pistol and ending their lives.

—The track-laying machine secured by the Louisville Southern road has reached Harrodsburg. It is pronounced a complete success and can lay from two to three miles of track each day.

—Nelson Landing, on Green river, this State, was also visited by a cyclone. Sunday afternoon, a number of dwellings and barns were demolished, three farmers killed and a number of other persons wounded.

—C. C. Gribbin, better known as "Con Greym," in race horse circles, was colored and cowhided in Lexington the other night by Mary Dineen, who claims that he was repeating his habit of following and annoying her.

—A floating theatre, at a cost of $50,000, is being built at Jeffersonville. The object is to give entertainments all along the river and rake in the shakels of the layabouts who do not get a chance at such amusements often.

—Speaking of the Blair bill Senator Blackburn says the House committee was prepared for its burial and it will be impossible for it to be resurrected. Kentucky would not get a dollar, anyhow, as her legislature has declined the offer.

—Following is the official report of the result of the terrible Mt. Vernon, (Ill.) cyclone: Killed, 37; fatally injured and dying, 8; seriously injured, but may recover, 30; wounded, but in no danger, 67. About 200 houses were destroyed, and fully 2,000 people are homeless.

—Mr. John V. Cowling, an old and highly respected citizen of Louisville, died Wednesday, aged 79 years.

—W. H. Gray, of Chicago, has gone to Richmond, Va., with a certified check for $23,300 with which to purchase Libby Prison, which will be removed to Chicago.

—The House refused by a vote of 129 yeas to 128 nays (not the necessary two-thirds in the affirmative) to pass the Hoar joint resolution changing the date of inauguration day and extending it until April 30th, 1890, the term of the 50th Congress.

—Mr. Unhertson, of Texas, reported to the House from the Judiciary Committee, a joint resolution proposing a constitutional amendment providing that polygamy shall not be lawful within the United States, or in any place subject to their jurisdiction.

—Capt. Ernest McPherson, who is a clear-headed, unprejudiced man, swore before the Rowan investigation Tuesday that it was his decided opinion that Judge Cole was in sympathy with the Tolliver gang, and that he was under the influence of Z. T. Young, the real head of the Tolliver faction.

—County Judge Coleman, of Muhlenberg, who has been hiding out to prevent the Federal authorities from serving a process on him to compel a levy for the payment of certain railroad bonds, has at last been captured, a deputy marshal disguised as a tramp succeeding in getting hold of him.

—Speaker and Mrs. Carlisle left Washington Tuesday for Wichita, where they were hurriedly called by the serious condition of their son William, whom Mrs. Carlisle left but a few days since apparently recovering. They expect to be absent about ten days. Sunset Cox will act as speaker during Mr. Carlisle's absence.

—Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wohlhaupter were arrested at Iron Mountain, Mich., charged with complicity in the Search robbery and murder at Jamesville two years ago. The murderers secured between $5,000 and $7,000, and there is a standing reward of $1,500 for their capture. They were attending a protracted meeting.

—W. G. Montgomery, of Owen county, who, it will be remembered, was confined in the Louisville jail to escape mob violence and who tried to starve himself to death while there, is on trial in the Franklin Circuit Court on a charge of venue, charged with the murder of his sweetheart, Miss Lona Kitson.

—There is one honest Cincinnati man, at least. The Secretary of the Treasury received, through Adams' Express, a package containing $1,000 in National bank notes, shipped by "A Freeman," at Cincinnati. It was accompanied by a note asking that the money be placed to the credit of the Conscience Fund and bearing the signature, "One Who Will Be Honest."

—John Coney, James Copeland and J. E. Malloy, prominent citizens of Ashley county, Arkansas, waylaid and shot S. J. Echols, whom they mistook for Wm. Buckworth, whose indictment for an offense they had procured and who had threatened to kill them on sight. When the deed was discovered the men had to be locked up in the penitentiary to prevent them being lynched.

—The stockholders' meeting of the L. & N. railroad was held at the offices of the company to decide whether or not to devote the earnings of the road to an increase of the capital stock for the purpose of making needed improvements on the road. It was determined to pay the dividends up to $5,000,000 in stock, provided the dividends reach that amount within the next three years, including the $600,000 dividend recently declared. In the total vote 108,422 voted in favor of the plan, and 4,115 against it.

DANVILLE, BOYLE COUNTY.

—Mr. T. A. Marks left Thursday morning for New York to be absent about ten days.

—In the county court Monday T. S. Jackson was appointed administrator of the estate of the late Dr. T. W. Jackson.

—James Chapman, charged with murder in Casey county, was brought here Wednesday evening and confined in jail for safe keeping.

—The Danville Club hop given Wednesday night at the Opera House was largely attended and was a very pleasant affair. Eichhorn, of Louisville, furnished the music.

—In the Charles Henderson case both sides announced themselves ready and at the hour (Thursday morning) this letter closed a portion of the jury had been obtained. Henderson looks well, stoutly maintains his innocence and is confident of an acquittal.

—Judge R. J. Breckinridge went to Lincoln county on Tuesday to prosecute several parties charged with house-breaking. Mr. W. A. Tribble, of Stanford, was sworn in as an attorney in the Circuit Court on Thursday. H. C. Kauffman, of Lancaster, was among the visiting attorneys in court Thursday. Dr. R. M. O'neal contemplates visiting Europe the coming summer and will spend some weeks in Rome, his native country. He has vowed also to press his lips to the Blarney stone.

—Samuel Ransdall, brought here by change of venue from Mercer county, on a charge of malicious shooting, was on Tuesday given three years in the penitentiary. The person shot was Ransdall's wife. The shooting occurred last August and came near causing the perpetrator to be lynched. It came out in proof that Ransdall brought home a quart of whiskey, having taken several drinks in Harrodsburg that night. He began drinking next morning and after he and his wife had taken a horseback ride of a mile and returned, there being no quarrel between them, the whiskey began to work, and after abusing his wife awhile, Ransdall shot her with a shot-gun loaded with small shot, several shot taking effect in her back and limbs. Mrs. Ransdall walked 4 of a mile and made known her condition to some friends at New Hope Church. A magistrate of the county and one or two others went to Ransdall's house and found him sitting out in the boiling sun drunk and asleep. He was aroused, arrested and that evening taken to Harrodsburg jail. While in a drunken condition he gave as his only excuse for shooting his wife that she was a republican and a prohibitionist. Mrs. Ransdall soon recovered and is now as well as ever. After the above facts came out on the trial Ransdall was put on the stand and testified that after the return from the horseback ride the events of the day were a blank to him. Both Ransdall and wife are good-looking people and have five children, and it is a pity under the circumstances that the matter was so bitterly prosecuted. Accused was prosecuted by Ex-Judge C. A. Hardin, C. A. Hardin, Jr., and Ed Gaither, of Harrodsburg, and Commonwealth's Attorney Herndon and County Attorney Harding. Defended by P. B. Thompson and W. B. Allen, of Harrodsburg, and R. P. Jacobs, of Danville.

FARM AND TRADE ITEMS.

—A good stud horse and jack for sale. L. D. Garner, Crab Orchard, Ky.

—Second Jewel, Charley Sandridge's fine stallion, sold in Lexington this week for $1,010.

—Some of the farmers of Clark county have sold their crops of tobacco to be raised this year of 10 cents.

—James Gentry sold to Hudson & Smith, Columbia, his 3-year-old Denmark stallion, Little Fred, for $500.

—The second day's sale of Woodard & Harbison brought 79 head of trotters under the hammer at an average of $678.

—Givens & Carter started yesterday with 20 calves and 15 2-year-olds to sell on the Winchester court market Monday.

—Eighty-two trotters brought an average of $350 in Lexington Wednesday. S. G. Boyle, of Danville, brought Folle Farine for $975.

—I have a lot of sugar corn seed which I will give free to such subscribers of the EXTERIOR JOURNAL as may wish it. Geo. D. Wearen.

—The first day of Woodard & Harbison's combination sale of trotters at Lexington resulted in 78 head bringing an average of $514.

—John Tawney & Son sold to Higgins & Stone, of Tennessee, 23 mule colts at $80, 4 yearlings and 2 broke mules at $15. [Advocate.]

—W. O. Brock sold last week to Omar Wilson, for Virginia parties, 42 heifers, weight 963 pounds, at 34 cents. [Winchester Democrat.]

—Mr. Burk, of Boyle, sold to an Illinois party a jack for $1,800. Mr. Burk had recently purchased him from Mr. Cavenberry Bright, of this county, for $800.

—From all over Kentucky come reports of preparation for a serious tobacco crop this year and it is a good season the weed won't be worth shucks next winter.

—At Columbia, Mo., sale, 30 jacks and jennets, by Bass, Anderson & Kim, brought $12,080. At another sale 20 brought an average of $463 and 10 jennets an average of $236.

—Over 1,000 thoroughbreds are booked for sale in Lexington during the coming three months. It is thought that the horse sales there during the year will amount to over $1,000,000.

—Cattle are quiet and unchanged in Louisville and best bring 4.40; hogs are steady and run in price from 34 to 53; sheep and lambs quiet at 3 to 1 1/2 for the former and 4 to 5 1/2 for the latter.

—J. B. Ferguson, Secretary of the Kentucky Association, purchased from John Wm. Lell the Hartsley farm, in Fayette, three miles from Lexington, consisting of 204 acres, for $20,482.

—Jenkins & Hines, Bowling Green traders, bought at St. Louis two car-loads of mules, 15 1/2 hands high 4 to 6 years old at $127.50 and of A. J. Taylor, of Ohio county, 6 mules 15 1/2 hands high at $140 each.

—The report of the Danville court came in too late for last issue. There were 204 cattle offered. A lot of 2-year-olds brought $33 per head and a lot of 3-year-olds $34. Aged mules brought $100 to $155. Day rather dull.

—An authority on hogs states that if we take all the hogs fattened in the United States in a year, and change the time of feeding from cold to warm weather, one-half the grain now fed will make all the pork. This would be a saving of at least $75,000,000 per year.

—Elder L. W. Sears will preach at Rowland next Sunday at 11 o'clock. He is a cripple and has had a poor chance in life, but is said to be a good expounder of the gospel.

—The EXTERIOR JOURNAL, one of the finest and best of our exchanges, came out last week in a brand new dress. [Winchester Sun.]

THE FELLOW MAREMUS has been indicted by the Federal grand jury at Louisville for committing and a several years' sentence in the penitentiary stores him in the face. He promises before he goes, however, to give the whole snap away, and when he does, he says a big sensation will be spring. It is hoped that his will spread.

New line of Ziegler Bros. spring shoes just received. S. H. Shanks.
Bitter, even of inferior quality, is scarce in this market. Why don't our country friends take advantage of the demand and work off their old stocks?

MURDER. In a quarrel over a game of cards in Laurel county, William Crawford shot Hugh Gregory and then finished the job by crushing in his skull with an axe. He is still at large.
CAL. MURDERER, a negro who has been in the penitentiary once and on the rock pile repeatedly, was tried $15 for shooting three shots in Macksville Tuesday night and thereby intimidating another negro. He had no money and will have to work the time out.

The Superior Court has reversed the decision of the Marion circuit court giving the widow of Elzie Logan damages for killing her husband. It will be remembered that he was put off a passenger train for disorderly conduct and a freight following ran over him.
The Father of His Country could not have asked a better day for the celebration of the 150th anniversary of his birth than that which came Wednesday. It was a typical spring day and the bankers, postmasters, legislators and other modeled individuals made the most of it.

Mrs. Wagoner, an unusually fine expounder of the temperance cause, was greeted with a packed and jammed audience at the Baptist church Wednesday night, which listened with rapid attention to her presentation of the subject. The ladies of the Union were especially delighted.
A WALKING RAIL. Marshal Nowland caught a negro whiskey seller dead to rights Wednesday by a little strategy. His name is George Williams and he hails from the country. The proof was conclusive that he had been selling the forbidden beverage and Judge Carson fined him $20. He did not have the wherewithal to pay and consequently went to jail.
For a man who lives where the finest cattle in the world are grown to send to Chicago after his beer seems somewhat like the proverbial business of "carrying coals to New Castle." But Mr. L. M. Lacey, one of our dealers, tells us that he has contracted with Amos & Co. to deliver him only hindquarters at a price not exceeding the cost of buying cattle and butchering them here. He says he gets only the best and is not annoyed with working off forequarters and other less salable portions of the meat.

The negroes, Frank Vincent, William McVernack and Tom Smith, charged with breaking into and stealing 28 chickens from the hen-house of John Purdon, were tried before Judge Varnon Tuesday and held in $1000 each, to the circuit court. The other negro, Isaac McVernack, who was also under arrest, turned State's evidence and gave the whole snap away, notwithstanding it implicated his father and his brother. He is, perhaps, the meanest one of the lot, but claims to be the pink of perfection and that he was overpersuaded to join in the robbery.
OLD BUTT. Little Miss Bell Sanley came with tears in her eyes yesterday and said that old Burton, the faithful equine, what had been in her father's family so many years, had laid down and died, and she wanted his friends all over the country to know of the sad occurrence. Old Burton was 28 years old and as a family horse he had no superior. The youngest child could drive him without danger, but the strongest man couldn't get him out of a certain gait which seemed peculiarly and solely his own invention. He was a present from Cal. Hill to Judge Sanley.

The little negro, Shas Emley, who pulled the postoffice here several months ago, pleaded guilty after the witnesses had gotten on the ground and the judge gave him a year in the House of Reformation. Capt. Richards says when the judge asked him if he stole the money he said "Yes, sir." "Didn't you know you would be punished for it?" was again asked to which he answered in the negative and burst out crying. The Captain's experience in the witness room where several hundred wild beasts from the mountains were caged was anything but pleasant and heavers that he would rather like Devil be cast in the lion's den than to be housed another day with moonshiners, counterfeits and their rough crowd of witnesses.
If girls would positively refuse to permit the escort of drunken boys or to have anything to do with them whatever, a long step towards sobriety and good behavior would be taken than can be effected by lectures or any other means. We heard of a young lady who refused to accompany her escort home the other night and when he demanded to know the reason she promptly responded: "Because you are drinking," and she didn't go with him either. Everybody will admire the spunk of the young lady, whose name ought to be printed in letters of gold, and would be but for the fact that she does not wish such notoriety. We shall watch the future of the brave little lady with confidence that she will do honor to herself and family and be fully rewarded for any temporary discomfort that may follow in the loss of such friends.

Large, fresh cabbage at S. S. Myers.

THE SOCIAL FOUR'S HOP.
All who attended the hop given at the Opera House Wednesday night, by those clever gentlemen composing the Social Four, Messrs. C. L. Cox, M. F. Hulet, J. W. Flowers and M. J. Steele, were made to have a most delightful time and everything passed off in an agreeable and orderly manner. The first set was called at 9 o'clock and from that time till nearly 2 o'clock reigned supreme. The crowd was just comfortably large and there was no excuse for all who wanted to dance not to do so. The music was furnished by a Danville band, which played through the entire 20 sets without leaving their seats. All of the ladies were handsomely attired and some very elegantly, as the following list will show. If any are omitted the error is unintentional.

Miss Alice Raines, pink silk.
Mrs. George Irwin, black satin.
Miss Ella Shanks, bronze velvet.
Miss Nannie East, blue cashmere.
Mrs. J. F. Hottel, green cashmere.
Miss Rose Richards, black silk; jet.
Miss Eliza Hasley, blue satin; gold.
Miss Sallie Huddell, black silk; jet.
Mrs. Matt Woodson, black silk and jet.
Mrs. Porter Stage, green cloth, velvet.
Mrs. Joe Portman, brown silk and velvet.
Miss Lizzie Harris, garnet plush; garnets.
Miss Davie Carpenter, garnet velvet; gold.
Miss Lelia Hays, brown camel's hair; gold.
Mrs. C. L. Cox, green cashmere and velvet.
Miss Emma Santley, green silk and velvet.
Mrs. J. T. Johnson, brown silk; diamonds.
Mrs. Smith Irwin, black silk, natural flowers.
Miss Annie Wray, gray tulle, plush trimming.
Miss Helen Santley, plum cloth, pink trimmings.
Miss Annie Raines, green camel's hair, red velvet.
Miss Hanning, Somerset, red cashmere and velvet.

CHILD EXTENSION. Messrs. D. W. Vandever, George H. Bruce and W. G. Boney were laying off some excellent additions to the Christian church yesterday and arranging for an altar and organ or so in the auditorium. It is proposed to build a room for the baptistry just behind the pulpit, 15x10 feet, and to the left of this a lecture and Sunday-school room of 20x20 feet. The lobby and gallery, which now serves as a resort for bad boys with cigarettes will be removed and thereby increase the seating capacity of the building about 100. The whole work will cost some $1,500 and when finished will be the most complete church arrangement in town. The building committee is composed of Mahan S. J. Embry and W. P. Tate, and Messrs. Bruce, Boney and A. A. Warren.

In order to prevent a confusion of the names the Cincinnati Southern officials have changed the name of Windom to Providence, the first name and Winom, looking something alike when written. Harrodsburg Junction is now known as Vevhump. This shows that the Sumner sunset disaster will not be permitted to be repeated.
The spring birds were singing sweetly yesterday and the festive gardener was in some cases getting in his work, but several birds and many gardeners do not make a spring, and both may yet repent of their overconfidence. Nearly a week of good weather after so much bad is calculated to feed the best of us, however.

If the person who took the time, new, still but by mistake at the Opera House Wednesday night will return it to this office he can have his old one and the thanks of the owner of the former.
Large, fresh cabbage at S. S. Myers.

W. T. Stone, brought in a turnip yesterday from Rockcastle that weighed 5 pounds and 2 ounces.
JACK ROCKS, the happy-go-lucky umbrella doctor, was with us again this week. Jack was 48 years old yesterday and in these years has tramped around about as much as any man in the Union. He has been in most of the States and is now contemplating a trip to the Pacific coast. He is said to be a millionaire and to prefer his mode of life to living in style and aping the Tamlins and Vanderbills.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.
Yesterday Rev. John Bell Gibson united Mr. Charles Lovell and Miss Mollie Martin in the holy bonds of matrimony.
George Smith and Miss Naomi, daughter of George W. Estes, of the Green river section, were married yesterday.
Mr. J. J. Belden and Miss Lulu, daughter of J. J. Benedict, of the Mill-holm neighborhood, celebrated Washington's birthday by uniting their destinies for life. They came to Mr. Embry's and were married by Elder John Bell Gibson.
The latest and latest gossip is that Mrs. Folsom, Mrs. Cleveland's mother and a very good-looking and attractive matron, who sailed for Europe ten days ago, went to Paris to purchase her wedding trousseau for her marriage to Secretary Bayard on her return.

Everybody who knows clever old Capt. W. W. Sweeney, of the Knoxville Division, and all who ever traveled on the line, will sympathize deeply with him in the loss of his excellent wife.

EXPORTE NOTICE.
Lincoln Circuit Court
STEPHEN VANDERPOOL, vs. Du Pediton.
MARY C. VANDERPOOL, vs. Du Pediton.
The petitioners having this day filed their petition in the Clerk's office of said Court, asking that said Mary C. Vanderpool be empowered to use, employ, sell or convey for her own benefit, any property she may own or acquire, free from the debts or claims of her husband, in making contracts, sue and be sued as a single woman, trade in her own name and dispose of her property by will or deed.
It is now ordered that notice of said action be published in the Interior Journal, a newspaper published in Stanford, Kentucky, for ten days.
Given under my hand and seal of the aforesaid Court this February 23, 1888.
